INTRODUCTION

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF YOUR RELATIONSHIP

Every good relationship has its bright and beautiful side! But it may also possess a more challenging or ‘darker’ side that slowly begins to reveal itself as time goes by. These two polarities marry together to form the essence of your relationship, and like day and night, both tend to balance and complement each other as equally important parts of the whole.

Most likely, but not in every case, your interaction will also center around one or more intense focal points representing the fundamental themes of your relationship. Your Starlight and Shadows Report analyzes your relationship according to these vital Strengths, Challenges and Intensities.

PLANETARY CROSS-ASPECTS IN THIS REPORT

The planetary cross-aspects – aspects formed between planets in both people’s birth charts – explored in this Report are the Trine, Sextile, Opposition, Square and Conjunction.

Trines and Sextiles (Relationship Strengths) generate soft and gentle energies conducive to love and harmony. Oppositions and Squares (Relationship Challenges) are associated with ‘harder’, more stimulating energies that can create interpersonal tensions and difficulties. Conjunction cross-aspects (Relationship Intensities) concentrate and enhance the effects of a planetary pairing, embodying its full range of potentialities, both ‘soft’ and ‘hard’ or ‘positive’ and ‘negative’.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR STRENGTHS AND CHALLENGES

Understanding your shared Challenges allows you to work on and overcome the possible weaknesses in your relationship. Acknowledging your Strengths helps you to appreciate, and get the most out of, the good things you have going for you as a couple. Identifying your relationship’s Intensity points empowers you to consciously choose the ‘positive’ as opposed to the ‘negative’ manifestations of a particular theme in your interaction.

A relationship with a preponderance of Conjunction cross-aspects (Intensity points) has the widest scope of options and flexibility, allowing for the greatest exercise of freewill. A strong emphasis on challenging cross-aspects (Oppositions and Squares) injects energy, ‘bite’ and excitement into a relationship, but may point to the existence of deep-rooted conflict patterns. If ‘soft’ cross-aspects (Trines and Sextiles) greatly outnumber all others, the relationship is likely to be exceptionally easygoing, but also liable to passivity and stagnation. Relationships with a reasonable balance of both Strengths and Challenges are among the most well adjusted and successful.

KARMIC INFLUENCES IN YOUR RELATIONSHIP

If the two of you have known each other intimately in a past life (quite likely if this feels like an important relationship to either of you), you will have created powerful karmic links that have a critical bearing on how you instinctively relate to each other in this lifetime.

Cross-aspects formed by the Outer Planets, defined here as Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, in one person's chart with the inner planets or Ascendant in the other person's chart, represent the main karmic influences in your relationship.

'Soft' Outer Planet cross-aspects, like the Trine and the Sextile, symbolize harmonious karmic patterns. 'Hard' Outer Planet cross-aspects, such as the Square and the Opposition, suggest inharmonious modes of relating may have been established in past lives and are now carried over into your current relationship. Conjunction cross-aspects involving the Outer Planets reflect a karmic destiny that could go either way.

A predominance of challenging Mars cross-aspects points to karmic issues of interpersonal rivalry and aggression. A majority of hard Saturn cross-aspects or Pluto cross-aspects is associated with challenging master/slave dynamics or dominant/dominated dynamics respectively. When the main focus is on challenging Uranus cross-aspects, the two of you will be dealing with problems of personal freedom versus commitment. If challenging Neptune cross-aspects predominate, the main karmic theme in your relationship will center around issues of over-idealism, disillusionment and deception.

Particular attention should be paid to any Mutual (also known as Double Whammy) cross-aspects in your Starlight and Shadows Report. Challenging two-way contacts between charts reflect strongly entrenched karmic patterns, indicative of the major spiritual lessons you are jointly committed to trying to learn.

Please note that if either person's birth time isn't accurately known, cross-aspects to their Ascendant will be excluded from this report. If your chart comparison features no Intensities or, in very rare circumstances, no Strengths or no Challenges, the relevant section will be omitted from the report.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP INTENSITIES

FIERY EMOTIONS

Johnny's Moon Conjunct Amber's Mars

THE DYNAMICS:

An unusually spontaneous emotional interaction gives rise at best to a healthily honest, open and direct sharing of feelings, and at worst to an ongoing syndrome of nagging and bickering, emotional outbursts, and badly hurt feelings.

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- Your spunky, upfront way of responding to each other injects a spark of exhilarating tension into your relationship and gives it an exciting edge which should prevent it from ever becoming boring! There's a tendency always to be forthright with each other and to readily express your feelings - both positive and negative - which serves to keep your passion for each other alive and well in the long term.

- When you're ecstatically happy, you simply can't help but show it, which leaves neither of you in doubt about just how much you care. By the same token, you're not the kind of people to harbor grudges without bringing them out into the open and you won't suffer in silence if something is upsetting you. While all of this is bound to result in some lively disputes and quarrels, these tend to be quickly over and have a therapeutic effect in clearing the air and preventing the build-up of grievances.

- Friendly sparring also adds spice to your sex life, which tends to be very 'hot' and energetic. A mutual ability to fulfill each other's erotic feelings and desires should result in a high level of love chemistry and compatibility. Sexually, you respond instinctively and passionately to each other, and will probably always enjoy flirting with each other in a way that is both challenging and fun. As a couple, you also tend to be highly fertile.

THE NEGATIVE POTENTIAL:

- A two-way tendency to spark off one another's criticism and irritability, born of your exceptionally uninhibited emotional interaction, can lead to argumentativeness, emotional scenes and fierce quarrels. Amber is likely to be highly impatient with Johnny's feelings and emotional responses, which she considers to be unreasonable, weak or indecisive.

- Johnny's personal and/or domestic habits may also get on Amber's nerves to such an extent that she finds it very hard to contain her annoyance and frustration with Johnny. Amber may be prone to mercilessly nagging and criticizing Johnny, with little regard for his hurt feelings.

- As a result Johnny may come to feel that he is constantly being picked on, and may see Amber as lacking in sensitivity, empathy and understanding. If he chooses to defend himself by giving as good as he gets, he is likely to further inflame Amber's anger, giving rise to a vicious cycle of mutual emotional abuse.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP STRENGTHS

FINDING YOUR BLISS

Mars Mutually Aspects Neptune

Johnny's Mars Trine Amber's Neptune

Amber's Mars Sextile Johnny's Neptune

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- This is a relationship which could potentially bring you a few small steps closer to nirvana! Certainly there's the potential to enjoy some incredible spiritual highs in each other's company in the form of mystical activities such as meditation or tantric sex. On a more prosaic level, just listening to music or dancing with each other could also give you an amazing buzz.

- This ability to 'bliss out' together stems from the strong etheric link between you, which allows you to relate to each other with a high degree of sensitivity and makes it easy for you to lose yourselves in any kind of emotionally profound experience. Sexually, there's the possibility of experiencing an almost mystical kind of ecstasy by living out your personal romantic fantasies and exotic passions together.

- The same influence gives the two of you access to a powerful creative energy, and when you collaborate with each other on any kind of inspirational project or joint artistic venture, you may find you have the ability to be incredibly dynamic, productive and successful and to function exceptionally well as a self-inspired team.

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- The two of you can help each other towards a healthier and more balanced expression of your energy drive and ambitions. In those areas of your lives where either one of you may be pushing yourself too hard, you encourage the other to take a less driven and frantic approach and discover the benefits of a more laid-back and less aggressive outlook.

- On the other hand, in those situations where you're fearful of openly expressing your true desires, or are lacking the strength and guts to actively stand up for yourself and fight your corner, by bringing out each other's warrior instincts you help each other to toughen up a little and pursue your goals and dreams more vigorously and courageously.

- As a couple, you strengthen each other's desire to 'do good' in the world, inspiring one another to channel more of your time and energy into altruistic or spiritually rewarding activities as opposed to purely materialistic goals. As time goes by, and your personal ideals and life goals become more interconnected and more aligned with universal energies, you help each other to discover your common soul purpose.

THE STRENGTH TO MOVE MOUNTAINS!

Mars Mutually Aspects Pluto

Johnny's Mars Sextile Amber's Pluto

Amber's Mars Trine Johnny's Pluto

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- One thing stands out very clearly about this relationship - it has the potential to turn you into a much stronger and more determined couple. Something unusual about the way the two of you interact on an energy level means you're able constantly to recharge each other's batteries and reinforce each other's will to succeed. If life knocks you down, no worries - you encourage each other to get straight back up on your feet again!

- As a result you could make an exceptionally powerful and dynamic team with the ability to take on the world and win! You tend to spur each other on to take on challenges that previously would have been far beyond you. In fact, the more difficult the task, the more fun you have in tackling it together - and the more obstacles in your path, the more satisfaction you get from eliminating them. Because you bring out the killer instinct in each other, you're liable to fight to the death rather than admit defeat, which can be very helpful in terms of achieving joint ambitions which call for lots of perseverance and grit.

- Sexually, you tend to exert a profoundly transformative influence on one another. Together, you are able to achieve an unusually deep and intense level of arousal and your orgasms are likely to be extremely powerful and long lasting. In your lovemaking you can discover the healing power of sex, through its ability to resolve underlying conflicts and bad feelings. For the two of you, sex is a kind of rebirthing experience, in that every time you make love, it wipes the slate clean and marks a brand new beginning.

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- Both of you can utilize your clear perception of your partner's energy patterns to pinpoint the strengths and weaknesses of their self-assertion and goal pursuit. With the help of one another's insights and back-up, the two of you will find it easier to more effectively handle confrontational situations and challenging issues of all kinds, and come out victorious.

- The two of you tend to increase and intensify one another's adrenaline drive, giving each other access to new energy reserves you never knew you possessed. With your partner by your side, you may discover the strength to move mountains! In part, you achieve this by encouraging each other to rid yourselves of old anger and resentments which have been festering in your subconscious and holding you back by depleting your vitality and willpower.

- In this relationship, both of you may find that your libido becomes much stronger and more passionate. As a couple, you are capable of bringing one another more closely in touch with your true sexuality - including aspects thereof you may never have previously expressed or confronted. Through each other and your physical relationship, the two of you may develop the ability to achieve a much deeper and more emotionally intense kind of sexual intimacy.

CREATIVE FREEDOMS

Amber's Sun Trine Johnny's Uranus

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- This is the kind of relationship that can really blast the two of you out of your rut! In a way it could feel like a sort of rebirth which helps you to approach life with a newfound sense of spontaneity and exhilaration.

- It's all down to the strongly liberating effect you're likely to have on each other's creative self-expression, which can make you feel free and alive in a way you've never experienced before. A delightful absence of routine and predictability in your interaction constantly injects new vitality into your relationship, opening you to new possibilities. You're the kind of people who are likely to thrive on a certain amount of mutual freedom and independence.

- What's certain is that it will be difficult for either of you ever to feel bored in this relationship. You're able to come up with some innovative ideas for helping each other to fulfill your true potential. There's a lot of mutual inspiration to express yourselves more creatively and you may find you uncover talents you never even knew you possessed.

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- The two of you bring ongoing excitement into each others' lives through a galvanizing mutual attraction which is likely to retain its magic right to the very end. What's special here is your ability to bring out each other's uniqueness and originality without needing to interfere with, or control, each other's creativity. The greatest gift you offer each other is the freedom to develop as separate, creative individuals within the framework of a supportive relationship.

- Amber seems to spark off Johnny's eccentricity and encourage him to behave in a more extrovert and uninhibited fashion than he has previously felt able to. Johnny can revel in the knowledge that in Amber he has a partner who will respond to his schemes and dreams, however unconventional or crazy.

- In turn, Johnny can have an electrifying effect on Amber, spurring her on to be her 'real self' or establish her true identity. Under Johnny's influence, Amber becomes more of a creative risk-taker, and is encouraged into experimenting more with her gifts and talents, or breaking into a more independent or avant-garde lifestyle.

A SUPERCHARGED TEAM

Amber's Sun Trine Johnny's Mars

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- There's a lot of raw energy here, making this a power-packed relationship which can really boost your adrenaline levels, your sexual libido and your competitive drive! When you're together, you both tend to feel physically stronger and have more of a can-do approach.
- It's all down to the element of friendly rivalry likely to exist between the two of you, which may cause you constantly to compete with each other for the position of top dog in this relationship, creating an exciting sexual tension. At the same time it can make you much more energetic and dynamic in your outlook on life as a whole.
- The subtle sense of competition between you serves to strengthen your determination to succeed in your goals as you seek to outdo one another. However a synergistic effect means you're even more powerful when you work together as partners than you ever could be individually. When you pool your energy and your resources, you make a supercharged team!

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- Johnny awakens Amber's personal pride and sense of ambition, while boosting her ego and helping her to feel more confident in those areas of her life where she may have been lacking in self-esteem and/or self-belief.
- In turn Amber has a revitalizing influence on Johnny's physical energy levels and 'get-up-and-go', and in situations where he may have been a bit weak and wimpish, helps to bring out his assertiveness and fighting spirit.
- Your lovemaking has an unusually invigorating effect on the two of you, generating a uniquely creative kind of tension and activating your kundalini energy flow. The strongly stimulating effect you have - and are likely to continue to have - on each other's libido minimizes the chances of your sex life ever going stale.

A 'GROWN UP' RELATIONSHIP

Johnny's Asc. Trine Amber's Saturn

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- This can be a delightfully serious relationship with commitment and dependability on both sides and an unusually solid sense of structure. Due to its strongly cementing effect, which quite likely has karmic origins, it makes for a stable and long-lasting personal bond that's hard to break, come what may.

- If, for some reason, Johnny is looking for the type of partner who can fulfill a quasi-parental role, then this relationship could really hit the spot for him! Because Amber is someone that he probably respects and looks up to, he may find it easy to turn to Amber for down-to-earth help and guidance.

- Interestingly, Amber would certainly appear to be the one who shoulders most of the responsibilities here and who puts in the necessary effort to ensure things work successfully on a practical, everyday basis. It's also Amber who gives this relationship its feeling of structure, carefully organizing your agenda and defining helpful 'rules of conduct' which allow you both to know where you stand.

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- Being the more psychologically 'grown up' of the two of you, Amber can provide Johnny with reassuring support and security, while encouraging him to gain in personal maturity, acquire greater self-discipline, and become more organized and productive in practical terms.

- By relieving Johnny of some of the heavier burdens of life, Amber frees him up to do his own thing and get on with more personally satisfying activities.

- For Amber, there's the opportunity to clear any karmic debts she may owe to Johnny as a result of having neglected her responsibilities to him in a previous incarnation.

ENCHANTED JOURNEYING

Amber's Jupiter Trine Johnny's Neptune

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- By stimulating your religious/spiritual instincts, this contact brings out your 'higher' side. As a couple, material gain may no longer seem quite so important to either of you, and you may find your ambitions slowly shifting towards a more relaxed and spiritually oriented approach to life. However 'square' you may be individually, when you're together, your 'inner hippie' comes alive.

- This is a relationship that can increase your faith in miracles and the abundance and goodwill of the universe. Through the power of your positive thinking, you attract divine help and guidance, which in turn opens the two of you to magical experiences. Because, as a twosome, you believe anything is possible, there are no limits on where you can go together, or what you can both achieve.

- Your interaction kindles feelings of altruism and kind-heartedness, causing you to give generously to charitable causes which inspire your ideals and compassion. In your dealings with each other too, you're also more giving than usual, more willing to forgive and forget, and more able always to see the best in each other, and in your relationship, no matter what transpires.

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- Each of you has a mutually invigorating effect on the other's imagination. Through your shared ability to transcend everyday, mundane realities, you both become more receptive to creative energies and your artistic potential soars. If either of you is at all talented in areas such as music, art and literature, in this relationship your natural gifts will come to the fore.

- Because your ideals and beliefs are in harmony, you instinctively understand, and encourage, one another's loftiest dreams and deepest yearnings. Together you excel at making grand, glamorous plans together for the future, and even if they don't all materialize, just fantasizing about them puts both of you on a high.

- As a couple, you may spark off each other's interest in mystical teachings and practices and their relevance in your everyday lives. You may embark on some enchanted journeys together - both real and figurative - which lead you to explore fascinating new territories, both of an earthly and heavenly kind.

EMOTIONAL ABUNDANCE

Johnny's Moon Sextile Amber's Jupiter

THE POSITIVE POTENTIAL:

- An ability to relate to each other in a relaxed and easy-going way can make you exceptionally tolerant of each other. There's a willingness to cheerfully put up with each other's emotional baggage and irritating little habits and idiosyncrasies. You're also likely to accept, and express goodwill towards, one another's families.

- One of the main keys to your potential compatibility may rest with your similar philosophy of life. Shared personal and moral values mean you're generally in agreement over how to handle crucial everyday issues, which makes for an unusually high degree of domestic harmony. Indeed, it's probably when you're relaxing at home together that you tend to be at your happiest.

- When difficulties arise, you have a unique talent for helping each other to stay positive and restoring one another's faith and confidence. You tend to strengthen each other's expectations that things generally turn out for the best and you're able to remind each other that even the blackest of clouds often have a silver lining.

YOUR GIFTS TO EACH OTHER:

- Domestically you bring many blessings to each other - perhaps as positive karmic payback for support and assistance you have given each other in a previous lifetime. Johnny may help to provide Amber with a stable and comforting home base, either materially in the form of a place to live, and/or emotionally in the shape of psychological support and security. In turn, Amber is likely to be benevolently disposed, and financially generous, towards Johnny's family members and relatives. As a couple, you relate to each other in a nurturing, or almost motherly, way.

- The two of you bring to each other the precious gift of laughter and light-heartedness. Whatever befalls you, you usually enable each other eventually to see the humorous side to the situation. Jokes and pleasantries mark the tone of your relationship, and goodwill and fair play predominate in all your interactions. Whatever your circumstances in life, you inspire a sense of happiness and contentment in each other. You require very little, other than one another's company, to feel on top of the world!

YOUR RELATIONSHIP CHALLENGES

UNREALISTIC EXPECTATIONS

Johnny's Sun Square Amber's Jupiter

THE NEGATIVE POTENTIAL:

- Because, right from the start, you may both sense that you are lucky for each other (which in many ways you certainly are!), you may develop a false sense of assurance, expectation and entitlement regarding your joint prospects in life. You may take your good fortune for granted, believe that your luck is limitless, and that no matter how irresponsible and reckless you are, the universe will always continue to provide.

- There's a risk that overconfidence and misplaced optimism will encourage the two of you to live too much in the moment without keeping enough of an eye on the future. You may be excessively extravagant with your money and assets under the assumption they will never run out. You may take foolish gambles and invest in unwise speculations in the mistaken belief that, as a couple, you can never go wrong. In the worst cast scenario, this can result in ruinous failures and losses.

- Despite her good intentions, Amber may harm Johnny's chances of success by over-exaggerating his talents and career prospects. Too much gushing praise and flattery and insufficient realistic feedback can give Johnny the idea he can blag his way to the top without any real effort or application. His trust in Amber - and in her big claims and promises - may be broken when he discovers this isn't the case.

THE CHALLENGE:

- You may well be a 'dream team' in terms of your potential for success and prosperity, but you need to be wary of taking your good fortune for granted, pushing your luck too far and extending yourselves beyond your limits. Just because you seem to bring each other good fortune, don't fall into the trap of believing that everything you touch together will always turn to gold!

- Harsh reversals of fortune may teach you the hard lesson that, no matter how healthy your karmic account was at the start of this lifetime, if you continue to take too much out of the 'pot' without giving anything back in return, your karmic credit - and your easy passage through life - will soon run out.

- Because your desire to shower each other with gifts and blessings makes it hard for you to check each other's excesses and rein in your overspending, you need to be much tougher and uncompromising in reminding each other of the tough realities of life. As a couple, too much mutual indulgence and permissiveness is your biggest Achilles heel!

THE KARMA:

Understanding the meaning of 'good luck' and how your fortunes are shaped by your thoughts and actions is an important karmic theme in your relationship which you will be exploring together. Because what goes around comes around, don't forget to keep boosting your good fortune by showering others with kindness, goodwill and generosity. One of the big spiritual lessons you're learning in this lifetime is that the more you give out as a couple, the more you are likely to get back in return.

TAKING YOUR LOVE FOR GRANTED

Amber's Venus Square Johnny's Saturn

THE NEGATIVE POTENTIAL:

- The main risk factor here is that, over time, Johnny may fail to put sufficient effort into making this relationship work, and has a tendency to take Amber's love - and his relationship with her - for granted.
- However much Johnny may love Amber, he often finds it hard to openly express his affection for her or show her much appreciation. There can be a marked absence of financial generosity on Johnny's part, a difficulty in offering Amber personal praise and compliments, and even a tendency to persistently draw attention to her flaws.
- Johnny's spoken or unspoken criticism of Amber may also extend to her appearance, her style of dress, her aesthetic and cultural tastes, her relationships with other people, and her approach to money and resources. To Amber, Johnny may come across as mean and stingy, and unreasonably disapproving of any wastefulness on her part.
- Naturally this has the effect of causing Amber to feel rejected and unwanted. It also makes it very difficult for her to respond warmly to Johnny, however much she may want to do so, while simultaneously lowering her social confidence. The big problem for Amber is that, no matter how much she tries to recapture Johnny's interest, the more hardened Johnny seems to become to her charms.

THE CHALLENGE:

- The big question Johnny needs to ask himself is whether there is something about Amber's relating style and/or aesthetic style that causes him to feel inadequate, and it is this sense of discomfort and awkwardness around Amber that causes him to behave rather coldly towards her - most likely without ever realizing he is doing so.
- If Johnny can come to understand, and rise above, his unconscious envy, or antagonism towards Amber, he has the opportunity to absorb and enjoy the beauty and charm Amber can bring into his life and to feel 'complete', perhaps for the very first time, when in her company. In turn, he will be ready and willing to help Amber to maximize her artistic and social assets.

- Johnny is challenged to tap into the more positive side of this cross-aspect by showing Amber unwavering loyalty and fidelity, and thus to discharge any outstanding karmic debts he may owe to Amber as a result of having been unfaithful, withheld affection, or behaved meanly to her in a past life.

THE KARMA:

Romantic neglect, or taking one's partner for granted, has throughout time been a major cause of relationship breakdowns. Regardless of how much we genuinely love someone, we may have a karmic history of persistently failing to show them enough attention and affection. Working on putting that right in this lifetime is one of the main reasons why you're together now.

OVER-ESTIMATING YOUR STRENGTH

Amber's Mars Square Johnny's Jupiter

THE NEGATIVE POTENTIAL:

- Although this contact vastly magnifies your enthusiasm and your confidence, your weaknesses as a couple lie in poor judgment of the extent of your capabilities and a bad sense of timing. Wanting to push ahead too soon with projects that require cautious and careful planning, and an irresistible urge to say 'yes' to everything, could tempt you into taking on bigger joint challenges than you can sensibly handle.

- If either of you has an issue with gambling, this is likely to be exacerbated by being together. Excessive optimism, a constant desire for 'bigger and better', and a mistaken belief that as a couple you can always beat the odds, can spur you into taking reckless risks under the assumption that nothing can go wrong.

- A tendency to go a bit wild and crazy together can override your normal sense of caution and self-protectiveness, pushing you into ill-considered actions and exposing you both to dangers and mishaps. Competing with each other on acts of bravado could seriously backfire!

THE CHALLENGE:

- Enjoy the huge adrenaline boost this relationship gives you, but don't over-estimate your physical strength and resources. Working and/or playing too hard will lead to premature burnout. Engaging in dangerous physical pursuits may result in accidents. Don't try to burn the candle at both ends and limit yourselves to activities that don't place too much of a strain on your health and safety.

- Beware an overly bullish and gung-ho approach. Don't gamble or take unnecessary risks unless you know the odds are stacked firmly in your favor. Because you can easily spur each other into a false sense of confidence, the likelihood is you will lose whatever you have invested.

THE KARMA:

Because Jupiter is essentially such a benign and helpful influence, the karmic consequences of its misuse tend to be relatively minor. So although as a couple you may have a past-life history of reckless gambling and risk-taking, you will probably continue to attract vigorous health and good fortune on the strength of your confidence and enthusiasm - albeit with a higher than average susceptibility to accidents and misadventure.

A 'SEMI-DETACHED' RELATIONSHIP

Johnny's Sun Opposition Amber's Uranus

THE NEGATIVE POTENTIAL:

- An element of selfishness may cause Amber to put her own needs first in this relationship and to treat Johnny's goals and aspirations as only of secondary importance. As a result, Amber may spend more time pursuing her own interests - and less time involved in shared projects and activities - than Johnny would like.

- Although Amber is excited by Johnny's creative goals and talents, at times she may feel that they swamp or stifle her own freedom of self-expression - and she may be reluctant to back Johnny if it involves having to take on additional responsibilities or be subjected to any kind of personal restrictions.

- Amber's lack of support can seriously wound Johnny's pride and give him the impression Amber is uncooperative, unpredictable, and maybe someone he can't rely on - which isn't quite fair as she's not necessarily uncommitted to Johnny. It's just that, in order not to feel suffocated in this relationship, Amber needs sufficient time and space to do her own thing.

THE CHALLENGE:

- Bearing in mind that any successful partnership requires a certain amount of cooperation, Amber will need to make a few compromises regarding her desire for personal freedom and be careful not to adopt too much of a 'me-first' approach.

- The big challenge for Amber is to avoid becoming too distant and gradually drifting apart from Johnny. Although Amber may be quite satisfied with a semi-detached or on-off kind of relationship, the likelihood is that Johnny is not. Amber can resolve potential difficulties by putting more into togetherness and being more giving towards Johnny!

- This is a relationship that challenges Johnny to become more his own person and to develop more creative independence and originality - if only as a result of Amber's frequent absences or lack of input and commitment. By acquiring more freedom, however unwelcome, Johnny gains the opportunity to become more resourceful and self-determining than would otherwise have been possible.

THE KARMA:

Balancing personal freedom with responsibility is a spiritual challenge the two of you are working on together - perhaps over the course of several lifetimes. The circumstances of your relationship, and how it unfolds, will help you to learn to respect each other's liberties, while honoring any soul commitments you have pledged to each other prior to this incarnation.
