

SYMPATICO
PARTNER
RELATIONSHIP PERSONALITY REPORT

for

Johnny Depp

born June 9th 1963, 8:44 AM

Owensboro, Kentucky

INTRODUCTION

The following Report, which analyzes your partner's natal chart primarily from the perspective of how they handle their relationships, has been written especially with you in mind! Its goal is to help you to better understand, and more effectively deal with, the characteristic emotional, sexual, mental and psychological patterns which underlie how your partner typically interacts with other people, and in particular how they relate to you.

Each chapter of the Report analyzes a different part of your partner's relationship personality, corresponding to the natal positions and aspects of the major planets at their time of birth, and (when their birth time is known exactly) their Rising Sign. You may find the first chapter of the Report, which explores your partner's elemental make-up, particularly interesting as a general indication of their fundamental approach to life.

Look out for key themes emphasized throughout the Report, or for any texts repeated in more than one chapter, pointing to important character traits likely to have a major bearing on your partner's relationship with you. Additionally, be alert to any personality contradictions revealed in your partner's birth chart, which will require careful balancing on their part, and a good deal of understanding on yours!

Interspersed throughout the Report you will find useful advice on how to handle your partner's personal weaknesses and vulnerabilities (everyone has some!), alongside of important reminders of their outstanding relating strengths and qualities – a few of which may only become apparent in the fullness of time. If you approach your relationship with your partner armed with these vital insights, you will give it a much better than average chance of succeeding in the long term.

Please note that if your partner's birth time isn't known to within approximately 10 minutes, the interpretation of their Rising Sign and the House positions of the planets in their birth chart will necessarily be omitted from the Report. Also be aware that unless their given birth time is accurate to within 2 to 3 hours, the integrity of their Moon data may, in certain circumstances, be compromised.

JOHNNY'S ELEMENTAL MAKE-UP

His Core Energy

The following analysis of your partner's elemental make-up – their unique balance of the four vital forces of fire (warmth, passion, enthusiasm), earth (practicality, realism, material interests), air (social and intellectual qualities) and water (emotional needs and feelings) – will give you a useful understanding of the core energy pattern which governs their general approach to life. Look out for any notable elemental strengths or deficiencies in their birth chart you may need to take into account in terms of how you conduct your relationship with them.

Earth Element is Strong

Johnny's common sense and ability to use, enjoy, and deal effectively with the physical world are his greatest strengths. Very down-to-earth and capable of managing everyday life extremely well, he has a strong urge to be useful and productive. For Johnny, the bottom line is always practicality: Does it work? Is it functional? Of what practical use is it? Theories and speculations mean little to him unless there is some concrete purpose, some way to use them in the real world.

Johnny is methodical by nature, and enjoys, even thrives on, a steady routine. His first response to anything novel or experimental is usually caution, resistance, or skepticism. Basically conservative, he prefers to make the best of the status quo rather than venturing into the unknown or making changes that could jeopardize his security. However, he may also hold himself back or pass over opportunities simply because he cannot control or know the outcome ahead of time.

Security is particularly important to Johnny, and his sense of wellbeing is directly linked with his financial assets or knowing he has a steady, reliable source of income for himself and his family. You should find that Johnny is a dependable provider who you can rely on to look after your practical needs but you may sometimes wish he was a little less wrapped up in material things.

Earth is Strong and Sun is in Air sign:

As discussed in more detail later in this Report, Johnny also requires much intellectual and/or social stimulation. A practical idealist at heart, he is open to testing out alternative ideas without losing his common sense!

Earth is Strong and Ascendant is in Fire sign:

As you will read in the following Section, Johnny also has a fiery, energetic side, which gives him balance and provides him with the energy and vision to make life more exciting!

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

How Johnny Appears to Others

This section of the Report takes a look at your partner's outer persona – the face they habitually present to the world – as represented by their Rising Sign (also known as their Ascendant) and any planets falling in the 1st House of their birth chart. You will probably immediately recognize this aspect of your partner's personality (provided their given birth time is accurate) since it is the part of them most immediately apparent to others. Be aware, however, that it doesn't necessarily reflect their 'real self', which will be addressed in detail the next section of the Report.

Leo Rising:

Ferociously proud and with a strong sense of self-identity, Johnny likes to be impressive and to be seen as Somebody Special. Whether others see him that way, or simply as somewhat vain and egotistic, depends on their individual perspective. Less confident people looking for a strong leader will appreciate his extroverted personality. Competitive types who see him as a rival for the limelight are more likely to feel threatened by his strength of character. Where do you stand on that score?

Whatever Johnny does, he does it in a unique, dramatic, individual way, with a desire to put his own personal stamp on it. As such, he's not someone who takes orders from others very well. Working with people who are equally as strong as himself can present difficulties for Johnny, as he doesn't really cooperate or share the leading role very easily. Inevitably he will sometimes irritate you by coming across as arrogant and bossy. Avoid this by encouraging him to tone down his authoritative manner and adopt a humbler demeanor from time to time!

Johnny is a man with great heart and courage, and people often look to him for strength, encouragement, and affirmation. He always has his best face forward and rarely allows others to see him hurting or disheartened. At the same time, he also has a very strong need for love, admiration, appreciation, and praise, although he doesn't like others to realize just how important it is to him.

Johnny's strong sense of dignity, self-respect and personal honor are personal traits that others immediately pick up on, and are usually impressed by. Not the kind of person to readily play the victim role, he won't tolerate abuse and is deeply angered if someone treats him in a humiliating or dishonorable way. That said, he will rarely confront the offender - he is too proud to do so and he doesn't indulge in petty recriminations - but they will immediately lose his affection and respect.

On the other hand, when someone shows him loyalty and commitment, Johnny is willing to go to extraordinary lengths to make that person happy. By nature he is very giving and generous, but his gifts are never anonymous - he does expect due recognition and acknowledgement in return. If he doesn't receive this, he tends to quickly feel unappreciated and taken for granted. In the eyes of Johnny's enemies, this is all about excessive attention seeking. To those who love him, it represents his adorably vulnerable side.

Mars in 1st house:

Part of the aura Johnny projects to the world comprises quite an assertive, and at times rather aggressive, energy. When he needs to, he really goes after what he wants and will then forge ahead with his plans regardless of others' reservations and even if it means competing with them or running them over. He often offends people by coming across more abruptly or antagonistically than is necessary to achieve his aims - and in turn has a tendency to take offense when none was intended. However hard he may try to hide it or play it down, Johnny's 'warrior side' is always immediately apparent for all to see. Learning how to handle his fiery personality may present quite a challenge for you at times!

Uranus in 1st house:

There's a strongly rebellious side to Johnny's personality! He enjoys being original, progressive, unpredictable and spontaneous, and infusing his environment with enthusiasm, new life and excitement. Sometimes it seems he is trying to provoke people and upset the status quo just to stir things up a bit. Others see him as quirky, offbeat and 'different' because he occasionally does surprising things that are either totally out of character or are actually intended to shock people. Above all, Johnny is an individual, and he does what he pleases, regardless of customs and norms.

Pluto in 1st house:

Johnny comes across as quite an intense person, inclined to be wholeheartedly and passionately involved in whatever his current interest is. He easily goes to extremes and can make more moderate, easy-going souls feel uncomfortable at times. Because he has a very charismatic, and perhaps rather forceful, personality, he may wield considerable influence over others, tending to dominate weaker, more introverted people. There is a sexual, seductive quality in his glance or manner that others notice right away and which may either repel them or draw them to him irresistibly. Learning to use personal power appropriately is an important issue for Johnny.

JOHNNY'S INNER SELF

His Real Motivation

Your partner's fundamental sense of purpose and motivation – the things in life that are most important to them and for which they seek personal recognition – and how these are likely to influence the shape and outcome of their close relationships will be discussed in the following, with reference to the position of the Sun and its planetary aspects in their birth chart.

Familiarizing yourself with your partner's ego needs and vulnerabilities will help you to avoid inadvertently undermining their self-esteem in a way that could be injurious to the wellbeing of your relationship with them.

Ascendant in Leo and Sun in Gemini:

Although he cares a great deal about his dignity and the way he is perceived by others (as described in the previous Section), Johnny also has a very, playful, child-like side that fortunately stops him from taking himself too seriously!

Sun in Gemini:

At heart Johnny is, in many ways, an eternal child. His mind is bright, alert, curious, flexible, playful, and always eager for new experiences, and his attention span is often quite brief. He grasps ideas, and gets to know new people, very quickly, but once his initial curiosity has been satisfied, he wants to move on to something else. He craves frequent change and variety, with opportunities to continuously meet new situations. This is someone who lives in his head a great deal - reading, observing, thinking, spinning ideas around - and in his relationships he needs mental stimulation every bit as much as he needs love, sex and romance.

It may be hard for Johnny to decide just where his talents lie, for he has a multitude of interests and is loathe to limit himself by concentrating on just one. He is easily distracted by all of the other fascinating possibilities! His curiosity and restlessness may propel him into many different experiences in life, probably also many relationships, and he is willing to taste or try anything once. Following a fixed routine, being with the same people, doing the same thing over and over, even it is going well, feels boring and tedious to Johnny.

In essence Johnny is a very social creature, with a strong need to communicate and to interact with others. He enjoys using and playing with words and has a real flair for getting his ideas across in a clever, interesting, articulate manner. He also has a rather light and mischievous sense of humor, and often does not take anything - or anybody - too seriously. Though he longs for emotional involvement, it isn't always easy for him to achieve it, since he is frequently unwilling to commit himself or to limit his personal freedom and mobility.

Johnny's inner motivation - and the source of his true happiness - resides in using his creativity and his language skills to communicate something meaningful to others, to teach, inspire, or bring people together. He has an unbiased mind and can usually offer a fresh, clear, uncluttered perspective, which is much appreciated by his partner and friends. His faults consist of his lack of constancy and persistence, and his tendency sometimes to disregard or overly rationalize complex emotional issues.

Sun in 11th house:

Leading groups, being involved in community activities and social events or movements, are areas where Johnny really shines and expresses his creativity. Rightly proud of his networking and people skills, he has a natural tendency to take charge among his friends and acquaintances, and may be prone to sulking if he doesn't receive the degree of respect and recognition from them he believes he deserves.

Sun Sextile Jupiter:

Johnny's life is likely to be blessed with more than his share of helpful friends, fortuitous connections, and doors opening to him at just the right time. His self-confidence, optimism and inner harmony attract success and benefits to him in an almost magical way!

You may well consider him to be a 'lucky' person, but much of his good fortune is actually due to his positive thinking. Because he is usually willing to share and to give back to others in a generous way, through the law of cause and effect he continues to generate successes in his life no matter how unfortunate the prevailing circumstances may be. People tend to like Johnny a lot because of his warm, outgoing and cheerful personality and his ability to spread a little happiness wherever he goes. With someone as positive and optimistic as Johnny in your life, it's hard to be downbeat for long!

Sun aspects Jupiter and Saturn:

However Johnny also has a 'heavy' side which keeps his optimism in check. He tends to seesaw between his faith, confidence and high aspirations, and his caution, realism (or fear!). His 'heavier', more serious side is described below.

Sun Trine Saturn:

Johnny has a mature outlook on life and a strong sense of responsibility, and is very conscientious in fulfilling his personal obligations - so not too many worries for you on that score. Often, however, he does things simply because he feels they are expected of him rather than following his true heart's desires. Realistic and practical, he may choose a relationship not just for love but also to help him to rise socially or materially in life.

Because he possesses strong self-discipline and perseverance, he has the ability to tackle long, difficult projects that others would find far too daunting, and successfully see them through to the end. Also, when confronted with problems in his relationships, he is usually willing to work patiently on solving them, rather than give up at the first hurdle. Definitely not a quitter, he tends to be in for the long haul.

You can help Johnny to find more joy and happiness by encouraging him to ease up a little on his strong work ethic and sense of dutifulness, while making more room for play and relaxation and allowing his 'inner child' to have a bigger say in the way he runs his life.

JOHNNY'S MENTALITY

How He Thinks and Communicates

In your partner's birth chart, it is the natal position of Mercury and the aspects it forms with other planets that indicates their characteristic way of thinking and how they convey their thoughts to others. Since good communication is an essential requirement of any successful relationship, you will vastly improve the quality of your interaction with your partner by gaining a better understanding of how their mind works and by recognizing – and learning to work effectively with – both their communication strengths and weaknesses. Any planets falling in the 3rd House of your partner's chart will be additionally covered here, as this area of their chart also has an important bearing on their thinking and communication.

Mercury in Taurus:

Mentally Johnny is very strong on commonsense and practicality, but may be lacking a little in imagination and originality. He possesses the kind of mind that sees things in tangible 3-D terms, with good visual and mechanical skills and a natural affinity for business and finance. However, he sometimes struggles with abstract concepts and may find it hard to relate to ideas that don't have a sound, concrete basis. Fundamentally quite traditional and conservative in his thinking, a part of Johnny tends to be rather cautious of 'new-fangled' untested approaches.

Slow to make decisions, he needs plenty of time to thoroughly consider all the practical implications of an issue. But having finally made his mind up, he is generally quite resistant to changing it again - and often stubbornly so! Pragmatic and material considerations are the main factors involved in the shaping of Johnny's opinions - idealism or logic being less important to him than the basic usefulness of an idea. Sometimes his thoughts can dwell excessively on money, material acquisitions and financial security. But essentially Johnny has a calm and placid mindset that finds little to worry about in life.

He tends to speak quite slowly and deliberately and may be reluctant to express an opinion until he has thought it through properly. Consequently he can sometimes be slow in responding to questions or may take a long time to get to the point, which can be irritating to more impatient types of people. Despite this, Johnny's gentle, harmonious voice and unhurried attitude have a soothing effect on others and make him easy and relaxing to talk to.

As someone who excels in offering commonsense advice, Johnny is the kind of person others always turn to for solid, down to earth wisdom. Realistic and sensible, he has a special gift for offering emotional insights in practical, easy to understand terms. However, in arguments and debates, his intellectual obstinacy and reluctance to yield to reasoning can sometimes get in the way of honest, fair-minded discussion. Yet such is his mental composure and serenity, it's unusual for him to raise his voice or lose his temper. To further boost his rapport with others, he needs to be a little more willing to give way or compromise in the case of disagreements.

Mercury in 10th house:

Johnny thinks a great deal about his career, his reputation and public image, and the way he makes a contribution or impact on the world at large. Much of his conversation with others is likely to center around his job or profession, his worldly achievements to date, as well as his ambitions for the future. His tendency to hog the limelight and fail to give others sufficient opportunity to talk about their own work aspirations may be irritating at times.

Mercury Conjunct Venus:

Johnny has a fine sense of social awareness and knows how to express himself very charmingly and gracefully in order to please and harmonize well with others. Words of love, affection and appeasement come naturally to him, enabling him easily to win over the hearts and minds of other people, even the most antagonistic ones. You may notice that Johnny has a particularly attractive voice which he frequently uses to his advantage in his personal relationships to bring others under his spell!

His mind instinctively turns away from unpleasant or vulgar topics of conversation, preferring to dwell only on that which is agreeable and beautiful. Tact and diplomacy are his great communication strengths. Mealy-mouthed insincerity and a tendency to compromise too readily just to keep the peace count among his weak points!

Mercury Square Saturn:

Putting his thoughts and feelings into words doesn't come particularly easily to Johnny. Because a part of him is very afraid of appearing stupid or disingenuous, he often believes it's safer to keep his mouth shut than risk 'saying the wrong thing'. Light hearted conversational exchanges probably aren't Johnny's forte. He tends to find superficial, meaningless banter rather irritating, preferring to stick mainly to practical topics and saying only what needs to be said. As a result he can seem rather reserved, stern, and unreceptive to others' thoughts and opinions, particularly if he considers them to be frivolous or poorly worked out.

The bad news as far as you are concerned is that getting Johnny to open up to you and make any kind of verbal commitment is likely to take a lot of hard work on your part. The good news is that he's no phony, and when he does make a firm pronouncement, at least you will know that he definitely means it.

There is a side to Johnny's mind that is very deep and serious. This gives him excellent powers of concentration when he needs them and aptitude for precise, detailed mental work. At the same time, however, he can be something of a skeptic, and when out of balance he is prone to pessimism, cynicism and overly rigid or judgmental thinking. These are tendencies you can counteract by encouraging him to focus on the humor in a situation, drawing on the more optimistic, upbeat aspects of his personality. At times the concepts of duty and obligation color Johnny's thinking far too much. He needs to rewrite his mental vocabulary by eliminating the words 'should' and 'ought'!

JOHNNY'S EMOTIONAL NATURE

His Instinctive Feelings; His Home and Family Values

Understanding, and knowing how to sensitively handle, your partner's feelings is critically important for a healthy and happy romantic relationship. But because many people tend to keep their deepest emotions under wraps, this isn't easy – without the help of astrology! The vital clues to your partner's feeling nature, and their instinctive responses and reactions, are to be found in the positioning and configuration of the Moon in their birth chart, as discussed in the following. Your partner's attitudes towards home and family life – the arena where their emotional nature expresses itself most naturally – may also be revealed by their Moon placement. Any planets falling in the 4th House of your partner's birth chart may additionally be covered here, since they can also throw light on their home and family values.

Moon in Capricorn:

Emotionally, Johnny tends to be quite serious, reserved and cautious. Indeed, his emotional self-control is one of his most commendable qualities, enabling him to keep a careful lid on his feelings, however much he's hurting, to avoid causing others (and himself!) any kind of embarrassment. With his high level of emotional discretion and integrity, he tends to be very trustworthy. As someone who would never deliberately betray a confidence, Johnny gives others the reassurance of knowing they can rely on him completely.

However, his emotional continence also creates certain problems for Johnny, often causing him to deny his true emotional needs because he feels others will not accept him if he appears weak and needy. He's uncomfortable with emotional dependency, and will censor himself and others for being 'babyish', perhaps because he was forced to grow up too soon and to carry too many responsibilities as a youngster. Accepting that no-one is self-sufficient all the time, and being gentler with his 'childish' emotional needs and wants will make it easier for Johnny to love himself, and for others to love him in turn.

Because much of his emotional security is invested in his social and material status, fear of failure and losing others' respect can be a source of worry and anxiety for Johnny. A prestigious home base may be particularly important to him, both as a symbol of his personal success, and as a source of security for his family. He's the kind of man who takes his responsibilities to his family very seriously, and on the domestic scene he is likely to be a strict disciplinarian.

To others, Johnny may appear to be rather hard-nosed and tough, with a businesslike attitude toward their personal concerns and feelings, but in reality no-one is a truer and more dependable friend to their nearest and dearest. His feelings and loyalties run very deep, but his problem is that often he doesn't let people know just how much he cares about them, and consequently they do not appreciate it. By learning to be less guarded and self-conscious about expressing his feelings for others, he will help convince them of his genuine love and affection.

Moon in 6th house:

Regular day to day rhythms are very important for Johnny's sense of emotional security. Sticking to a strict work and fitness routine is good for him both physically and mentally; allowing himself to get out of shape immediately leads to a dip in his wellbeing. When he has too much time on his hands to ponder his problems, his health - and in turn his personal relationships - tend to suffer. By staying busy and helping others in practical ways, he can keep his mind off his worries and also improve his relationships.

Moon Square Jupiter:

Because Johnny can be an exceptionally cheerful and optimistic person, others tend to feel a lot better when they are around him. For this reason, he is generally very well liked. Gregarious, fun-loving and always out for a good time, he makes a point of trying never to take life too seriously. However, he has a 'play now, pay later' philosophy of life which makes him prone to overspending, overeating and drinking, and in general overdoing - and even more so when in the company of others. As his partner, you may find he needs a lot of reining in!

It can be very hard for Johnny to say no, especially when his emotions or appetites are involved; generous to a fault, he is apt to be very free both with money and with affection. Over-optimism on his part can sometimes lead to disastrous judgments, causing him to overstretch himself by promising or giving more than is sensible or wise. He could resolve many of the problems he faces in his relationships by developing more self-control!

Moon Sextile Neptune:

Emotionally, Johnny is quite sensitive and cannot stand to be in an atmosphere where there is discord or dissonance. He does best when he surrounds himself with people who are gentle, peace-loving, and artistically or spiritually inclined, and there is a strong element of mutual empathy in his personal relationships.

There is a side to Johnny that is easily able to tune in psychically to other people's feelings and emotional worlds and he may particularly share this kind of telepathic link with females in his life. Highly sympathetic to where others are coming from and with a deep sense of compassion for their troubles, he will potentially give or sacrifice much in order to help his loved ones and 'make everyone happy'. In turn, he needs a partner who will respect his inner sensitivities and treat him with the love and tenderness he deserves.

Moon Trine Pluto:

Johnny has very deep feelings and profound ties to the people and places he cares about, especially his home and family. His relationship to his mother and other females in his life is likely to be incredibly close and intense. He may be easily manipulated too, when it comes to one of these important relationships, because he is so emotionally invested in it.

He has a lot of inner strength and can usually handle a relationship crisis very successfully, since he is interested in the deep roots of emotional problems and how to cure them. As someone who takes his own and others' feelings very seriously, he prefers issues being brought out into the open, for he wants real closeness and intimacy - without secrets or barriers - between himself and those around him. When he has been hurt, he tends to experience the pain very intensely, but has the ability to put it behind him relatively easily. It seems to be part of Johnny's pattern to undergo periodic emotional upheavals and purging, when he must release the past, break some of his ties and begin anew.

Neptune in 4th house:

Johnny 'seeks his bliss' in life through his home and family. As a child Johnny is likely to have over-idealized and/or felt badly let down by one of his parents. Now, as an adult, he may constantly search for the ideal, loving home life he wished he had or believed he had, suffering repeated disillusionments when his dreams don't match up with the current reality.

Giving too much to his family in the attempt to be the perfect partner or parent could turn him into a doormat around the home, which wouldn't be healthy for anyone. Alternatively, the sense that no matter how hard he tries, his efforts are never good enough, could cause him to give up on his domestic responsibilities. To combat these tendencies, encourage Johnny to get things more into balance by lowering his domestic and familial expectations, while helping him to create a happy, yet realistically attainable, home and family environment.

JOHNNY'S PERSONAL RELATING STYLE

What Love Means to Him and How He Expresses It

The following description of Venus's position and aspects in your partner's birth chart is possibly the most important part of this Report in terms of the light it throws on their love style and relationship potential. Here you will discover exactly what love means personally to your partner (it can mean very different things to different people!) and their characteristic way of giving and receiving affection (which may not be the same as yours!). Pay particular attention to any weaknesses or contradictions in their relationship personality highlighted in this section, and to any advice on how you can deal with these most effectively. Any planets falling in your partner's 7th House of partnership or 2nd House of material values – both of which are ruled by Venus and have a critical impact on their relating style – will also be interpreted in this chapter.

Venus in Taurus:

In love, Johnny is steadfast, loyal and warmly affectionate, but he can also be rather possessive of the people he cares deeply about. While he gives his love whole-heartedly and for keeps, and makes a faithful and dependable partner, in turn he expects a similar degree of devotion and reliability from his 'significant other'.

Quite patient and non-judgmental, Johnny is mostly a very easy person to get on with. But his subconscious sense of 'ownership' of his loved ones makes him prone to jealousy in the event of any threats to the security of his relationships. When he fears losing his partner, he tends to become very fixed and inflexible, and quite difficult to please. Accepting and honoring his lover's right to personal autonomy and freedom is a critical relationship challenge for Johnny.

Due to his strong need for long-term financial security, he is cautious about entering into romantic commitments which are unlikely to be materially rewarding. Breaking off relationships is always hard for Johnny, but especially so if financial losses or sacrifices are involved. Personally, he tends to be quite reliable with money and despite his love of luxury, he doesn't usually spend beyond his means. A financially feckless lover would be very hard for Johnny to bear.

This is a very sensually oriented man who needs lots of touching and physical affection. He particularly enjoys being pampered with a good meal, loving massage, or other sensual delights. He is a wonderful lover, very attentive to the comfort and pleasure of the one he loves. His style of loving is passive rather than assertive: he knows he can rely on his charm and good looks to easily attract friends and partners without having to chase after love.

Personal style and attractiveness - both his own and other people's - are very important to Johnny, and perhaps rather overly so. At times he may place excessive emphasis on physical or material attributes, judging others purely by their looks or possessions. Selecting his partners for their inner as well as their outer beauty would bring more rewarding relationships into Johnny's life.

Venus in 10th house:

Johnny has a tendency to choose relationships that will help to boost his social and material status. For example, he may work hard on cultivating good relations with powerful people who can further his career in some way and/or may pick a marriage partner who is wealthier or of a higher standing than himself and can give him a step-up in life. He needs to be wary of disregarding love and friendship opportunities that don't offer him much in the way of financial or social advantages, but which could ultimately bring him true love and happiness.

Venus Square Saturn:

Though he craves love and affection, intimacy can be difficult for Johnny. Feelings of loneliness and/or fears of rejection often plague him and inhibit him from expressing his feelings in a warm and open way. There may be an initial coolness, coldness or romantic awkwardness about him which can be rather off-putting and leads you to question whether or not he is really interested in you. Because Johnny doesn't trust others very easily, it may take you some time to break down all of his emotional barriers and defenses.

Quite likely, heartache and a loss of love in his earlier life have made him cautious about becoming close to people and sharing his feelings. The sense that there is 'not enough for me' may have caused him to be very frugal and stingy with money too. He tends to choose the 'safe option' where love is concerned, and prefers to avoid any kind of risk taking, both financially and emotionally. Love and duty may be closely entwined for Johnny, causing him to remain in a loveless relationship far longer than he should do.

There is likely to be a part of Johnny which deprives himself of pleasure, friendship and love, either because he feels he doesn't deserve it or because he thinks it's wrong to enjoy life too much. On some level, he may see himself as unattractive or unlovable and thus close his heart to romantic opportunities, never quite believing that anyone could genuinely like him without having some ulterior motive. If you care deeply for Johnny and desire a full and loving relationship with him, it will be your task to convince him that this isn't true.

Venus aspects Saturn and Uranus:

Alongside of his sense of cautiousness and vulnerability where love is concerned, there is another side to Johnny (discussed in the following) that is much more spontaneous, uninhibited and experimental. Since these two aspects of his relating style are diametrically opposed to each other, they may create a great deal of tension in his relationships.

Venus Square Uranus:

Excitable, impulsive and easily stirred emotionally and sexually, Johnny is capable of falling in - and out of - love very quickly and unexpectedly, particularly in his youth. Since he prefers to remain free and spontaneous, he has a tendency to avoid making firm personal commitments and many of his love affairs tend to be short lived. Unusual or non-traditional forms of love and relationships appeal to Johnny, and he is attracted to unconventional, creative, and 'different' kinds of people.

Once a love affair becomes stale or boring, it quickly loses its appeal for Johnny. For this reason, if you want your relationship with him to last, it's essential that it should maintain an ongoing element of surprise, change and variety. You may also find that a 'semi-detached' kind of relationship, i.e. one where both of you have a good deal of freedom and independence, holds his interest much more than a safe, predictable one.

It may be very difficult for Johnny to sustain a relationship with a staid, conservative partner who does not like change, or with someone who is jealous and controlling and tries to tie him down. For a successful relationship with Johnny, be prepared to offer him a lot of breathing room - and perhaps close your eyes to the occasional romantic indiscretion on his part. He does best with an open-minded, non-possessive lover with a similar romantic outlook to himself.

Saturn in 7th house:

Johnny takes his commitments to others very seriously, especially in close one-to-one relationships. His strong sense of responsibility potentially makes him a trustworthy and dedicated partner, and once he has entered into a formal partnership agreement, he is likely to honor it. However, he often feels that marriage or any binding commitment between himself and another person is too restrictive and burdensome, and thus seeks to avoid it. He may delay settling down with a 'significant other' until he has gained in sufficient maturity to assume the responsibilities involved, or he may feel more comfortable with an older, more 'grown up' kind of partner.

Johnny is challenged to put more effort into his partnerships than most other people. He may encounter a number of difficulties and be required to take on more than his fair share of conjugal obligations and burdens. On the other hand, an overly conscientious approach to love, and a basic lack of confidence in his relationship skills may cause him to worry unnecessarily about relatively minor problems. Unless he can learn to lighten up a little - and you can help him to do so - at times intimate relationships may feel more like toil than pleasure to Johnny!

JOHNNY'S PERSONAL DRIVES AND PASSIONS

How He Achieves His Goals; His Anger Behavior Patterns

Acquainting yourself with, and learning how best to adapt to, your partner's personal assertiveness style is one of the most important keys to maintaining harmony in your relationship with them. In the following, take particular note of the information revealed about the nature and quality of your partner's energy drive and libido, how they go about achieving their goals, and in particular their anger behavior patterns – what triggers their anger, how they express it, and how they tend to respond to other people's anger – all of which are disclosed by the positioning of Mars (the planet of sex and war) in their birth chart. Developing appropriate strategies to help your partner express their will most effectively, while minimizing the risk of destructive conflicts and fights, will be crucial to the long-term success of your relationship.

Mars in Virgo:

Johnny's work is a ruling passion in his life - he may even be a workaholic. Because doing a job well is very important to him, he's likely to labor over minute details that others wouldn't bother with. A born perfectionist, Johnny often feels that if he wants something done 'right' he must do it himself, for others never do as thorough a job as he does. He strives constantly for accuracy, efficiency and precision, and becomes very irritable when other people don't meet his high standards.

Somewhat nerdy by nature, Johnny carefully organizes his life according to his own tried and trusted systems, techniques and methodologies and is upset by disturbances to his routines and schedules. Sexually too, he's likely to be technically savvy and always keen to learn more, although his emotional reserve can make him uncomfortable with taking the initiative or expressing much sexual emotion.

On the other hand, he can become so much of a perfectionist and so self-critical that he will not even attempt many activities and projects, feeling that his efforts simply won't be good enough. While usually modest and realistic in assessing what he can accomplish, Johnny often tends to underestimate himself and may limit his opportunities through an unwillingness to take risks or venture from the beaten track. In short, Johnny may not aim high enough and settle for too little in life.

Johnny's perfectionism is also the root cause of many of his quarrels with others, and merciless criticism, dressed up in a particularly biting form of sarcasm, tends to be his weapon of choice. With his superior intelligence, penetrating powers of analysis - and lack of interest in sparing others' feelings - he is prone to pointing out his opponent's failings with such undeniable accuracy, they will most likely want to crawl away and die! A skillful strategist who plans and organizes his battle campaign in minute detail, Johnny knows how to cleverly play on your weaknesses and inefficiencies to get the upper hand!

Mars in 1st house:

Part of the aura Johnny projects to the world comprises quite an assertive, and at times rather aggressive, energy. When he needs to, he really goes after what he wants and will then forge ahead with his plans regardless of others' reservations and even if it means competing with them or running them over. He often offends people by coming across more abruptly or antagonistically than is necessary to achieve his aims - and in turn has a tendency to take offense when none was intended. However hard he may try to hide it or play it down, Johnny's 'warrior side' is always immediately apparent for all to see. Learning how to handle his fiery personality may present quite a challenge for you at times!

Mars Conjunct Uranus:

High-strung, restless and often nervous and tense, Johnny has a super-abundance of energy and finds it difficult to slow down, pace himself, or relax. He is always on the go! When he wants something, he wants it NOW, and acts quickly, impulsively, and decisively. At times he seeks out risky and even dangerous activities, primarily for the excitement they provide. Daring, impatient, and unconventional, Johnny has no capacity for 'doing things as they have always been done'. He is intolerant of authority, can be very rebellious, and reacts extremely badly to pressure and attempts to curb his freedom.

Explosive fits of temper and a sudden, erratic sort of recklessness are character weaknesses that can all work very much against Johnny, especially when he needs to be working cooperatively as part of a partnership or team. When he is out of balance or upset about something, he often does things that are rash and outrageous, and can be a danger both to himself and to those around him. At such times he is potentially capable of wild, uncontrolled, even violent outbursts, so you would be wise to avoid provoking his anger and keep well out of his way!

In his relationships Johnny needs a great deal of personal space to do things in his own way and does not happily conform to schedules, rules, or regimes imposed by his partner. Sexually, he has a taste for experimentation, likes to be spontaneous and doesn't readily take no for an answer! His libido can be somewhat erratic at times.

He is often brutally frank and abrupt with people, especially when they are blocking his will, and he can be very cool and impersonal when he is pursuing a desired goal. Don't ever assume you will be able to tame Johnny and get him dancing to your tune. He is a very defiant and independent kind of person who can go it alone if need be.

JOHNNY'S MORAL BELIEFS AND VALUES

His Personal Strengths and Blessings

The moral principles and values your partner attempts to follow in life, and the standards of behavior they expect both from themselves and from others in their relationships, are reflected by the position of Jupiter in their birth chart and any aspects it forms with other planets. In this chapter you will learn a great deal about, and perhaps gain newfound respect for, your partner's fundamental beliefs and philosophy of life. You will also discover where they feel most confident in themselves, and thus attract positive opportunities and blessings – from which you too could potentially benefit. Perhaps most importantly, this chapter will reinforce your awareness of your partner's greatest personal strengths and qualities. Make a point of re-reading it from time to time to remind yourself of some of the reasons why you first fell in love with them!

Jupiter in Aries:

Johnny believes strongly in the power of positivity and the ability to make life anything one desires through one's own initiative and effort. Taking responsibility for his own destiny and depending on himself, rather than on other people, seems the 'right thing' to do to Johnny. He has little moral respect for people who compromise on their freedom by allowing others to enslave them or boss them around. The more Johnny relies on himself, the more vigorously he asserts himself and the less he has to ask for or accept outside help, the better he tends to feel about himself.

Johnny's strengths lie in his personal independence, his adventurous and courageous spirit, and his willingness to follow his own spontaneous impulses, even if that means courting others' disapproval and going against the crowd. He is likely to be blessed with high energy levels, an invincible fighting spirit and unshakeable faith in himself.

Romantically, Johnny always fares best when he assumes the initiative, while honoring his own and his lover's individuality. A relationship where both people are free to 'do their own thing' without too many obligations or restrictions brings Johnny the greatest happiness in love. If he betrays his core principles of personal autonomy and liberty by becoming too subservient or dependent on his lover, he can never feel good about himself.

The joy of competing and winning runs deep in Johnny and - provided he doesn't become overly self-centered and doesn't pursue his personal rights at the expense of other people's - when he's taking the lead in life he knows instinctively he's on the right path. Perhaps, in your relationship with Johnny, you will benefit from following his lead too.

Jupiter in 9th house:

Contact with different cultures, whether through travel or other forms of communication with people whose ways of thinking and living are very unlike his own, brings Johnny the gift of wisdom and a well rounded understanding of life. Kindness and generosity he shows to foreigners return to him in the form of lucky opportunities that come his way through associations with people from other parts of the world. He is blessed with a strong and soundly based faith in the fundamental benevolence of life which sustains him no matter what befalls him.

Jupiter Quincunx Neptune:

A big dreamer, highly idealistic, and open to anything, Johnny has a great, wide-open sense of possibilities which allows extraordinary, even miraculous events to come into his life. At the same time, however, he can often be rather impractical and gullible, believing that anything is possible, no matter how 'far out' or ridiculous. Johnny can easily be duped when this side of his personality comes into play. He needs to balance his dreamy idealism with realism and practicality in order to get the best out of his life.

Deep down Johnny has exceptionally strong spiritual values which express themselves in kindness, compassion and a readiness to assist those less fortunate than himself. His altruistic moral values can make it difficult for him to limit his charitable impulses and he can be foolishly selfless at times. Because he prefers to see only the good in others, ignoring their flaws and failings, he is liable to experience deep disappointment if he discovers their ethical values don't match up to his own.

Jupiter Sextile Sun:

Johnny's self-confidence, optimism and inner harmony attract success and benefits to him almost magically. Because he is usually willing to share and to give back to others in a generous way, through the law of cause and effect, he continues to generate successes in his life no matter how unfortunate the prevailing circumstances may be. As a result, his life is likely to be blessed with more than his share of helpful friends, fortuitous connections, and doors opening to him at just the right time.

JOHNNY'S HIDDEN FEARS AND VULNERABILITIES

His Personal Weaknesses and Challenges

In this chapter you will gain intimate insights into the areas of life which tend to be most difficult for your partner, and some of the hidden fears and weaknesses that undermine their confidence in themselves and could have a detrimental effect on their relationship with you. Treat this highly privileged information with the respect and sensitivity it deserves! It is the configuration of Saturn (traditionally known as the planet of karma) in your partner's birth chart, as described in the following, that reveals where they are most likely to feel in some way inadequate, lacking or held back in life, and where they may be driven to work hard at overcoming their limitations. Hopefully, this section of the Report will give you a new understanding of your partner that shifts your relationship with them onto a much closer and deeper level.

Saturn in Aquarius:

In common with the generation of people born within the same two and a half year period as himself, Johnny is somewhat lacking in confidence in his ability to form friendships, be part of a group, and/or 'fit in' with society as a whole. Being a team player may not come very naturally to Johnny. However outgoing and sociable an individual he may be in reality, and however much he may crave companionship, in group situations he always has an underlying sense of being some kind of 'outsider' and a fear that, if he reveals his true individuality, he may be ostracized or excluded.

To compensate for his subconscious sense of social inadequacy, and avoid rendering himself vulnerable to rejection, Johnny may avoid group situations as far as possible. Alternatively he may become a keen, even fanatical, networker, building a large circle of social contacts, in the hope that if one friend lets him down, he will always have others to fall back on. In his desire to feel more 'in step' with the crowd, Johnny needs to be careful not to be too easily influenced by his friends' beliefs and values. There is also the risk that if his group activities become more important to him than his intimate relationships, they are likely to suffer as a result.

Developing his ability to function as part of a group or team without losing his individuality - honoring the ideals of the collective while remaining true to his personal values - represents an important challenge for Johnny. Getting to grips with this becomes much easier for him around the age of thirty when Saturn, the planet of adulthood and maturity, returns to its natal position in his birth chart, motivating him to adopt a more responsible and 'grown up' approach to life.

Saturn in 7th house:

Johnny takes his commitments to others very seriously, especially in close one-to-one relationships. His strong sense of responsibility potentially makes him a trustworthy and dedicated partner, and once he has entered into a formal partnership agreement, he is likely to honor it. However, he often feels that marriage or any binding commitment between himself and another person is too restrictive and burdensome, and thus seeks to avoid it. He may delay settling down with a 'significant other' until he has gained in sufficient maturity to assume the responsibilities involved, or he may feel more comfortable with an older, more 'grown up' kind of partner.

Johnny is challenged to put more effort into his partnerships than most other people. He may encounter a number of difficulties and be required to take on more than his fair share of conjugal obligations and burdens. On the other hand, an overly conscientious approach to love, and a basic lack of confidence in his relationship skills may cause him to worry unnecessarily about relatively minor problems. Unless he can learn to lighten up a little - and you can help him to do so - at times intimate relationships may feel more like toil than pleasure to Johnny!

Saturn Square Mercury:

An overly serious or conservative mental outlook can create communication difficulties for Johnny. He can be something of a skeptic at times, and when mentally out of balance he tends toward pessimism, cynicism and overly rigid or judgmental thinking. On these occasions he finds light conversational exchanges quite awkward and may come across as excessively reserved, stern and unreceptive to others' thoughts and opinions, particularly if they are frivolous or superficial. He can counteract these weaknesses by choosing to focus on the humor in a situation, drawing on the more optimistic, upbeat aspects of his personality.

Saturn Square Venus:

Feelings of inadequacy and/or fear of rejection often make it hard for Johnny to express his affection for others warmly and openly, thus denying him the love and intimacy he truly desires. He tends to prefer solitude to being in uncomfortable social situations, and his shyness may be intense – especially when young. Heartache or a loss of love in his earlier life have probably made him quite cautious about becoming close to people and sharing his feelings. The sense that there is 'not enough for me' may have caused him to be rather frugal and stingy with money too.

Learning to truly value and accept himself – including whatever flaws or imperfections he believes he may have – is a tremendously important challenge for him which can reap great rewards for him, especially in later life. If for Johnny it's the case that 'true love is hard to find', he will value it tremendously when it does come into his life.